Tom Sterling.

PRESIDENT & GEN. MGR.

Cliff Fletcher

The position of President of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club has given the 47-year-old native of Montreal a whole new role within the Flames' management. Answerable to the club's six owners for the overall operation of the franchise, Cliff has the herculean responsibility of running a multi-million dollar business and managing a Stanley Cup contending hockey team. He is also the Chairman of the NHL's General Managers' Committee.

Fletcher's hockey aspirations began in Montreal. Ten years in a scouting capacity with Sam Pollock and the Montreal Canadiens led to a post as Eastern Canada scout for the St. Louis Blues in 1967, when that club joined the NHL. Rewarded for his diligent efforts, Fletcher was named Assistant General Manager of the St. Louis Blues in 1969. During his four years with the Blues, the team never missed the playoffs. They were in the Stanley Cup finals three of the four years. When the National Hockey League expanded to 14 teams in 1972 and Atlanta was awarded a franchise, Fletcher became the first and only General Manager the franchise has ever had. Since joining the NHL and the Blues in 1967, Fletcher's teams have missed the playoffs only twice in 14 years.

Appointed General Manager of Team Canada '81, Fletcher endured what was to be a disappointing season with his Flames last season; but, true to his character, he did not stand pat. Changes were made. No GM was more active than Fletcher. Flames' fans can expect at least six new faces in the line-up this year. Only five players remain on this year's roster who played as members of the Atlanta Flames. More than ever, this is a Calgary Flames team.

Cliff, wife "Boots", son Chuck and daughter, Kristy, reside in Springbank.

ASST. GEN. MANAGER

Al MacNeil

The Flames new Assistant General Manager is in his 21st season of professional hockey. He has done it all — player, coach, scout, player development and personnel, minor league GM, and on September 2, 1982, Cliff Fletcher appointed MacNeil to his new position.

MacNeil's responsibilities include all professional scouting, monitoring the progress of all the players under contract to the Flames and all the Flames unsigned draft selections.

He was a NHL defenseman for eight seasons with Toronto, Montreal, Chicago, Pittsburgh and the NY Rangers.

His first coaching assignment was Houston Apollos of the Central Hockey League in 1968, then the Canadiens in December of 1970. While he wound up wearing a Stanley Cup ring in his NHL coaching debut, he returned to the Nova Scotia Voyageurs for the following six seasons as coach-manager, finishing first four times and winning three championship Calder Cups.

He was an assistant coach for Team Canada in 1976 and again in '81 for the Canadian Cup Tournament.

Al became the Flames third head coach early in 1979. He coached the team in Atlanta for the 1979-80 season and in Calgary the past two seasons, 1980-82. His 1980-81 club made it to the Stanley Cup semi-finals.

The MacNeils — Al, wife Norma and children Allison and Allister live in Calgary, but spend their summers in Big Pond, Nova Scotia.

Bob Johnson

One thing about a new coach: all the players have to prove themselves. And, of course, the more they prove themselves, the more successful they become.

Bob Johnson officially became the fourth head coach of the Flames on June 1, 1982. The National Hockey League is, in his words, another mountain to conquer.

"It's exciting because it's a challenge in my coaching career," he said. "I've coached a long time in college, world championships, Olympic teams and last year in the Canada Cup.

"There is only one mountain left. Obviously the challenge is there and I'm looking forward to it."

Johnson promises to bring a fresh approach to the NHL and, hopefully, will enjoy the same kind of success he has had during the past 15 years at the upper amateur levels.

A self-described career coach, Johnson directed the University of Wisconsin Badgers the past 15 years, compiling a 367-175-23 win-loss-tie record en route to winning the NCAA championship in 1973, '77 and '81. He also coached the U.S. Nationals in 1973, '74, '75 and '81 and the Olympic crew in '76. In 1977, he was named NCAA coach of the year.

While much of his notoriety has been gained at Wisconsin, Bob's career actually began in 1956 at Warroad, Minn. high school. His first college job was at Colorado in '63, and he joined Wisconsin three years later as their first hockey coach.

Bob and his wife Martha have five children, including 1980 Olympian and Minnesota North Star center Mark.

ASSISTANT COACH

Bob Murdoch

Coaching was on Bob Murdoch's mind long before he donned the blades to help Montreal Canadiens win a Stanley Cup in his rookie NHL playing season of 1970-71.

Last year, he edged closer towards that goal when he was named as one of Al MacNeil's two assistants. Although he dressed for 73 games and was rock-steady as ever along the Flames' blueline, he worked closely with rookie defensemen Steve Konroyd and Charles Bourgeois.

'Mud' now moves in as full-time off-ice assistant to new coach Bob Johnson, where he'll work even more closely with the parade of youth that will be the Flames this season.

One of the most popular and respected individuals in the dressing room, Bob hangs up his skates with 757 regular-season NHL games under his belt and another 69 playoff encounters. During his 12 seasons with Montreal, Los Angeles, Atlanta and Calgary, he scored 60 goals, 218 assists and had 764 minutes in penalties.

Bob's overall NHL playing record consisted of 826 games, 64 goals and 236 assists for 300 points. He had 856 minutes in penalties. In his 12 year NHL career he was in the Stanley Cup playoffs every year. He played 69 games, scored 4 goals and 18 assists for 22 points, and he had 92 minutes in penalties.

A solid family man, Bob, wife Doris and their four children make their year-round home in Calgary.

COLORADO COACH & GM

Pierre
Pagé

The Flames assistant coach for the last two seasons has new responsibilities this season. He is the bossman of the Flames No. 1 farm team — Colorado Flames of the Central Hockey League.

Now in his third season with the Flames' organization and in professional hockey, Pierre's No. 1 priority will be developing players for the club's NHL team. He has had much success with young players.

The former professor of physical education at Dalhousie University motivated new life in bodies and new ideas in minds with his off-ice training programs and ever-present chalkboard and electronic replay equipment.

A native of Lachute, Que. and the individual responsible for transforming Dalhousie's almost non-existent hockey program into one of respect and success between 1971 and 1980 when he joined old pal Al in Calgary, Pierre is innovative, efficient and proficient at improving a player's natural skills.

Dalhousie went from the basement to a No. 2 ranking in 1978-79 under Page's guidance, winning the Maritime conference championship for the first time in 60 years.

But, he gained his initial insight into the pro ranks when he assisted MacNeil at Halifax with the Voyageurs and could draw partial credit for the development of NHL players Pierre Mondou, Doug Risebrough and Guy Chouinard.

His talents have not been overlooked. He was invited to work with the 1980 Canadian Olympic team and with Team Canada '81.

Pierre and his wife Donna make their off-season home in Halifax.

TRAINERS

Jim Murray

"Give me ultra-sound, a whirlpool, my hands and a bucket of ice and I can look after just about any ailment," says trainer Jim Murray, who can be found sticking his nose in a manual on sports medicine when he's not massaging a charleyhorse or taping an ankle or knee.

'Bearcat' or 'bear' has been binding, sewing and cajoling hockey and football players for the better part of his 48 years, even before he hung up his blades in the defunct senior Big Six League.

'Bear' is a native of nearby Okotoks but knocked around the oilfields of Saskatchewan before returning to Calgary in the early Sixties as bus driver, trainer and what-not for Scotty Munro's junior Centennials.

It wasn't long before he joined the training staff of the WHA's Calgary Cowboys, all the while honing his skills under the watchful eye of the Calgary Stampeders' football training staff.

The treatment of injuries is a small part of Bear's duties in as much as he must also keep a watchful eye on players' diets and conditioning programs. He's also a big brother and a father when the players look for a shoulder to lean on.

Jim, his wife Shirley and sons Allan and Danny make their home in Calgary. Allan, or 'Little Bear' is following in his father's footsteps as trainer for the Calgary Wranglers.

Bobby Stewart

All Bobby Stewart wants for Christmas is a pocket calculator.

As the man responsible for keeping tabs on sticks, skates, pucks, pads, helmets, sweaters, pants and anything else pertinent to Flames' battledress, he is the hub of the organization.

Bobby has been with the Flames since their second season and around hockey rinks for the better part of his 32 years. He started lugging sticks when he was 15 years old for the Junior Canadiens, helped with the parent Canadiens and eventually graduated to the Flames as equipment manager and assistant trainer.

While he must keep track of more than 40 pairs of skates, 160 dozen sticks, 2,500 pucks, 3,000 rolls of tape and assorted other inventory, the biggest part of his job starts after the game has finished.

When the players are 'coming down' from the high of the game, you may find Bobby packing bags for an extended road trip or simply preparing for another practice session the next morning.

It's often a thankless job but few seem to enjoy it more or carry it off so well.

Bobby and his wife Sherri live in northwest Calgary.

HISTORY OF THE FRANCHISE

Someone once said, "There is a lot more comes out of the South than just cotton", and for southern Albertans and Canadians alike, truer words were never spoken. On May 21, 1980, the Atlanta Flames became the Calgary Flames; they would no longer play in The Omni (capacity 15,141); they would play in the Stampede Corral (capacity 7,242). They would no longer take to the ice displaying a fiery "A" on their jerseys, but rather thrill the fans with an explosive-looking "C".

The history of the Flames' franchise unfolded when a group of Georgia businessmen, headed by Tom Cousins, based on solid marketing studies, the existence of an NBA basketball club, and a beautiful new building, applied for and were officially granted an NHL franchise June 6, 1972. The first game at The Omni matched the Flames against the Buffalo Sabres, and after 60 minutes, the Flames had earned their first NHL point. Final score: Atlanta Flames 1, Buffalo Sabres 1. Ironically, the first game in Calgary also ended in a tie, October 9, 1980, a 5-5 deadlock with the Quebec Nordiques.

Not unlike the means by which the Flaming "C" came to represent the Calgary franchise, the name "Flames" was arrived at also by a contest in Atlanta that attracted some 10,000 entries, with judges from all phases of the media responsible for choosing the most representative nickname. Historically, General Sherman captured the city of Atlanta during the Civil War and burned the city down. The flames that engulfed the entire city were extinguished, and the rebirth of the Georgia capital began.

On May 21, 1980, after months of negotiating, Nelson Skalbania announced that he and a group of Calgary businessmen had purchased the Atlanta franchise and would move the team to Calgary. Sixteen months later Skalbania sold his interest in the franchise, and ownership of the southern Alberta franchise consists strictly of six Calgary businessmen.

The Flames, entering their third season of play in the Corral, hope to fulfill the expectations their off-season player transactions have created. One year from now the Flames and their fans hope to be playing and watching NHL hockey from conceivably the best entertainment facility in all of North America. The Olympic Saddledome currently under construction adjacent to the Corral will seat 17,600 for hockey.

There probably weren't a lot of people who thought 'Chuck' would ever surface in the NHL ... Tall, slow of foot, awkward the critics said of Flames' 1981 free-agent signing. But, the guy can play defense. He can clear the goal-crease and the corners ... and that's all that really counts ... A graduate of Tier II hockey in New Brunswick and a member of the 1981 Canadian Inter-university champion, University of Moncton, he scored his first NHL goal in the Montreal Forum against his childhood-favorite Canadiens. It was one of two goals and 15 points he collected in 54 games last season with the Flames ... At 6'4½" and 205 lbs., doctors claim that Charlie may not have finished growing yet, irrespective of whether he grows any more or not Charlie could be a giant in the NHL in more ways than one.

Charles is single and spends much of the summer just lazing around his native New Brunswick.

Mel Bridgman was everything and more when he arrived via the trade winds from Philadelphia in November of 1981 ... The former Flyer captain, the first player chosen in the 1975 draft, moved in at center and left wing and quickly scored 26 goals and 49 assists in 63 games to complete an 87-point season. Whatever problems he had in Philly, he certainly left behind as he provided Flames with on-ice leadership and toughness ... Bridgman never went longer than three games since joining the Flames without recording at least a point ... Has never missed the playoffs in his seven years in the league and is the Flames all-time leading playoff scorer ... A native of Trenton, Ont., he was raised in the West and led the Western Canada Hockey League in scoring in 1974-75, his final year with Victoria ... Named captain of the Flyers in 1979 ... Mel needs just five goals to reach the 150-goal plateau and one point to crack the 400-point barrier.

Mel divided the off-season between Philly and Calgary.

The kingpin of Flames' power play had everyone thinking of another 50-goal season until a serious groin injury occurring in Minnesota followed by an eye injury sustained in Philadelphia sidelined him for a total of 16 games ... Guy still came back to score 23 goals, his second lowest total ever in six full seasons with the Flames ... Drafted No. 1 by the Flames in 1974 and was voted Rookie-of-the-Year by the Central League in 1975 ... Graduated to Nova Scotia Voyageurs of the American League his second season and caught on with the Flames the following year ... Not one of the league's speediest men, but an accurate shooter and good puck handler ... Remains the only Flame to ever score 50 goals in a single season (1978-79) ... Scored 19 of his goals last season in the Corral and collected 13 goals on the power-play ... Switched jersey number from 16 to 7 ... Can hit a golf ball out of sight.

Guy, wife Danielle and son Eric make their off-season home in Quebec City.

*Only Flame to score 50 goals

Tied most assists one playoff season

If there's one man who figures to fit right into Flames' system, it's Steve Christoff ... Obtained from Minnesota this past summer as part of the Willi Plett deal, the talented forward can play either wing or center, shoot the puck hard and score goals ... Steve had a 26-goal season last year and more than doubled his assists but, more important, overcame the adversity of playing with a nagging shoulder injury that required surgery immediately after the playoffs ended ... He's one of the best shooters in the league from either side and, when healthy, can use well-developed upper-body strength to play it tough ... A graduate of the Minnesota hockey system, he played on one state high school championship team, was the University of Minnesota's leading scorer two consecutive seasons and helped the U.S. Nationals claim the Olympic Gold at Lake Placid in 1980 ... He was drafted in the second round of 1978 and played for Team U.S.A. in last fall's Canada Cup.

Christoff is married to Tami.

There's no question Flames' No. 1 draft choice of 1980 is going to get points in the NHL ... Denis has 30 points to his credit in 55 major league outings during the past two seasons despite limited ice time and a painfully slow breaking-in process ... His first trip to Calgary, in September of his draft year, he was expected to set the world on fire with glowing credentials from back-to-back 70-goal seasons with the junior Canadiens of the Quebec Major Junior League ... He lasted 10 games, returned to Montreal and sniped 50 goals in 57 games ... Last season was a definite improvement but still not good enough to make the parent club at the start of the year although he demonstrated spurts of brilliance on occasion, capitalizing on his strength and ability to cut in on goal from his off-wing position ... Cyr scored seven goals in an 11 game span after being called up from Oklahoma City, a goal ratio management would like to see him attain on a regular basis ... Now, it's the third season and while there are still some doubters, this is the one management expects will be the year of arrival for Denis Cyr.

Denis is single.

When you talk of durability, you talk of Richie Dunn ... The 24-year-old defenseman, acquired this past summer from Buffalo Sabres, has only missed nine games in his three NHL seasons and has not only taken a regular shift but also worked on Sabres' specialty units — power play and penalty killing ... Buffalo head coach Scott Bowman used Dunn and defense partner Bill Hajt against all the leagues' best offensive units ... Signed as a free agent in 1977, Richie spent his first two seasons between Buffalo and Hershey of the American League before finally earning a starting spot with the Sabres in 1979 ... Although not known for his scoring prowess, he has registered at least one point against every team in the league and would like to have the opportunity of demonstrating his offensive talents to a greater degree ... A native of Boston, Mass., he played his junior hockey with Windsor Spitfires of the OHA.

Richie and wife Cathy make their home in Getzville, N.Y., and are expecting their first child in September.

Don Edwards broke into the NHL by posting a 2.61 goals against average in 1976-77 and it hasn't fluctuated much since ... In these days of damn the defense, the 27-year-old has consistently been among the top five goalies in the league ... Acquired by the Flames this past June, the 1979-80 co-winner of the Vezina Trophy is expected to not only start the majority of games, but provide all-star goaltending ... Edwards was Buffalo's sixth-round pick in 1975, was named to the second all-star teams in 1978 and 1980 and appeared in the 1980 all-star game ... Won the Star of Stars award, the Frank Eddolls Memorial Award, the Wayne Larkin Award and Fred T. Hunt Award in 1977-78 ... Has 14 career shutouts, including back-to-back shutouts in 1980-81 ... Member of Team Canada '81 ... Has put together five consecutive 20-win seasons ... An excellent golfer, he spends much of the summer participating in various tournaments.

Don, wife Tannis and their one child reside in suburban Amherst (Buffalo), N.Y.

If points were awarded on effort, "Jaymor" would be the team's leading scorer ... A two-time Masterton Trophy nominee — once by Quebec Nordiques and last year by Calgary — he came to the Flames in January, 1981 in a deal for goaltender Dan Bouchard ... Hustle and dedication are the fortes of the University of New Hampshire graduate, whether it be on a regular shift, penalty killing or training ... Has played in 128 consecutive regular season and playoff games for the Flames since his acquisition Jan. 29th of '81 ... Drafted in 1974, he chose to remain in college until Cincinnati of the defunct World Hockey Association lured him into the professional ranks in 1976 ... Quebec claimed him as a free agent in 1979 and now, just as he was in Cincy and Quebec City, is one of the most popular players among fans and team-mates.

When the man they call 'Eddie' cracked Flames lineup as an 18-year-old in 1980-81, management predicted they had a 50-goal scorer ... Last season, the 20-year-old fell 18 goals shy of that mark but more than doubled his rookie season total. So, this could be the year ... Kevin became the second youngest Flame ever to score 30 goals in his sophomore season last year, Kent Nilsson the youngest ... Kevin was drafted second by the Flames in 1980 and strutted a booming slapshot and speed in his first professional camp after starring with Brantford Alexanders of the OHA for two seasons ... Last year, he opened even more eyes with his shot and displayed versatility by stepping in at center as if he had played the position offensively all his life ... Not known as a particularly strong defensive player but isn't shy of the corners or afraid to trade punches.

Kevin married Cindi this past summer and makes his off-season home in Sudbury, Ont. He's an avid fisherman and is studying for his navigator's licence in boating.

A shoulder separation kept the 'Magic' out of Flåmes' lineup for almost half the season last year but it didn't stop the gifted Swede from scoring 26 goals in the 41 games he was healthy ... A holder of most club offensive records, Kent was drafted in the fourth round of 1976 but didn't make his way to the Flames until he had spent a couple of plus 100-point seasons with Winnipeg Jets when they were in the WHA ... Finished third in the NHL scoring race two seasons ago in setting team records for most assists (82) and points (131) ... Was the first European-trained player to crack the 100-point barrier in the NHL ... Possesses one of the hardest shots in the league, slapped or wristed, and some of the best moves one-on-one with goaltenders ... Has played in two NHL All-Star games and for Team Sweden in the 1980 Canada Cup ... Not only plays hockey extremely well but can hold his own in soccer, golf and tennis.

Kent and wife Berit have a home in southwest Calgary but spend most of the off-season in their native Sweden.

Milestones: Needs 36 assists for 200
Needs 21 points for 300

"Pep" was full of it last season in marking his first 30-goal experience ... He became the third youngest member of the Flames ever to hit the 30-goal plateau in his sophomore year ... A leader on and off the ice, the big guy has the toughness, wheels and shot to emerge as one of the league's outstanding players ... The Flames' 4th round choice in 1979 has proven he can play all three forward positions, but seems to have found a home at center after playing all his minor league hockey on the right side ... A former captain of the Toronto Marlies of the OHA, he is a slick communicator who works with several local charities, particularly Special Olympics and Uncles At Large, when he's not trying out a new recipe in his kitchen ... Likes practical jokes, tennis, boating and water skiing, but should be barred from a golf course.

Jim is single and has a home in Calgary, although he spends some of the off-season in Ottawa.

The ability and versatility of the Flames' 1st round draft choice in 1979 has never been questioned. The full extent of it, however, may not have been fully appreciated until he was pressed into the role of center during one of coach Al MacNeil's major shakeups last season ... Paul looked just as comfortable at his former junior position as he did on defense ... "Rhino", although bothered by a bad ankle at times last year, collected almost a point a game and was once again declared the club's best defenseman ... As an underage graduate of the Kitchener Rangers of the OHA, he was the youngest player to ever start a season with the Flames in 1979 after electing to turn pro instead of joining the Canadian Olympic Team ... A stocky individual with excellent rushing ability, Paul was chosen for Team Canada in last fall's Canada Cup, as well as the Canadian National Team this past spring.

Paul is single and owns a home in southwest Calgary, and spends a great deal of time assisting local charity needs in and around Calgary.

*Tied for most assists one playoff season

Flames' President-General Manager Cliff Fletcher made his fourth major off-season trade when he acquired Doug Risebrough from the Montreal Canadiens, September 10, 1982 ... Fletcher, who had been after the 28-year-old aggressive two-way center since last spring, had to give the Canadiens a third-round draft choice in '84, and the two teams will exchange second-round picks in '83 ... Doug has been on four Stanley Cup championship teams (1976-77-78 and '79) in his eight years in the NHL ... The native of Guelph, Ont., has averaged 15 goals and 38 points per season ... Injuries kept him on the sidelines for 21 games last year. Doug reported to the Flames' camp in good shape, and barring another serious injury he could match his 60-points (22 goals, 38 assists) season of 1976-77 ... He is one of the most respected players in the league, and his penalty minutes reflect his aggressiveness ... He was Montreal's 2nd choice, 7th overall in the 1974 Amateur Draft ... Doug will wear No. 8, the same number he had with the Canadiens.

No one ever promised Phil Russell a rose garden, he just made one out of heart and soul ... The Flame captain enters his 11th season with a world of knowledge and the desire to play the game just as hard as he did in 1972 when he was drafted in the first round by Chicago Black Hawks ... Acquired by the Flames in a multi-player deal late in the 1978-79 season and appointed captain last season when Brad Marsh was traded to Philadelphia ... Played in the 1976 and 1977 all-star games and with Team Canada in 1977 ... The graduate of Edmonton Oil Kings is a partner in a Chicago meat packing plant and has an eye for a good side of beef ... Perhaps the most down-to-earth guy on the team but one who keeps to himself ... Enjoys fishing, his family and some charity work.

Phil and his family — wife Joyce, daughter Amy — have a home in southwest Calgary and spend much of the off-season in Chicago, Ill.

COACHES

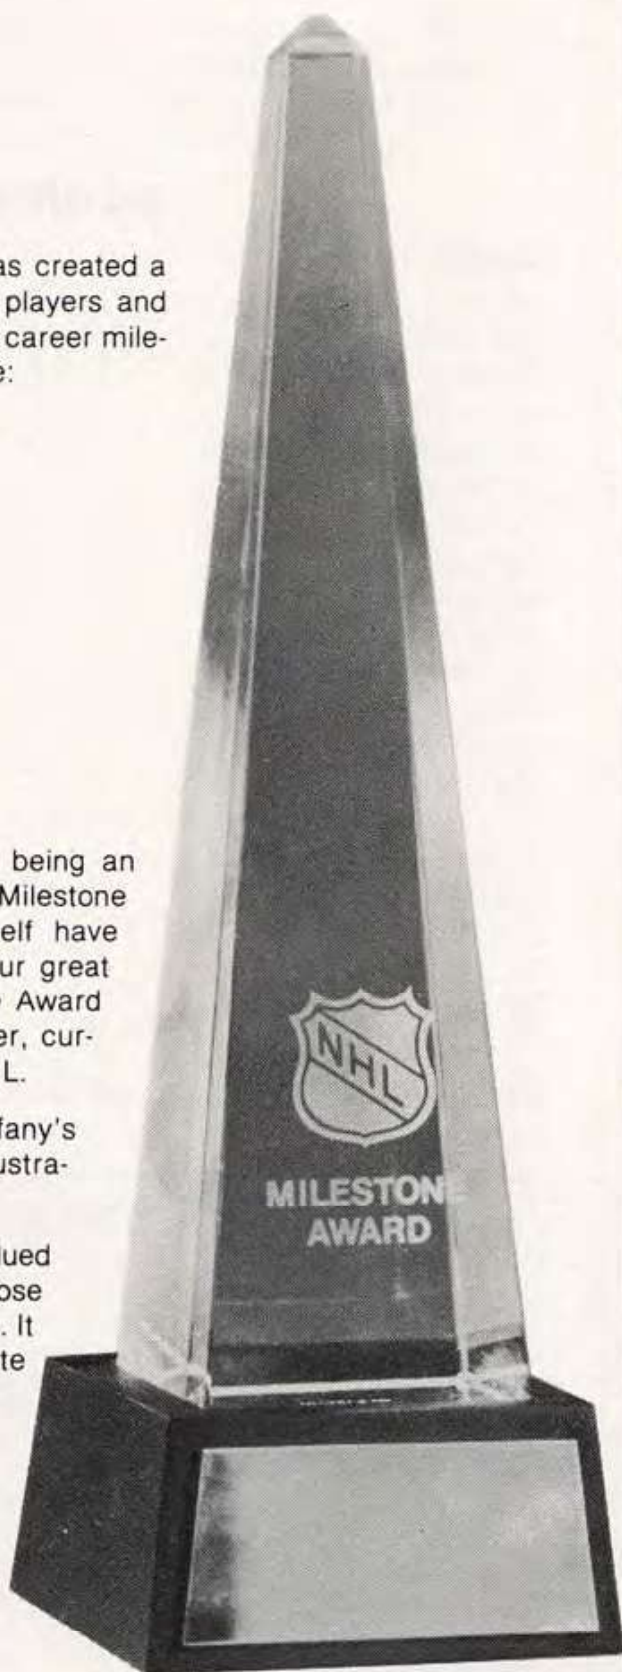

- 500 Wins
- 750 Games Coached

I wish to congratulate you for being an inaugural winner of the NHL Milestone Award. People such as yourself have made lasting contributions to our great sport and with that in mind the Award was initiated to honor the former, current and future greats of the NHL.

The League commissioned Tiffany's to design the elegant obelisk, illustrated herein.

The NHL Milestone Award is a valued possession to acknowledge all those who excel in the game of hockey. It is a fitting and handsome tribute to your significant contributions.

John A. Ziegler, Jr.
(President)

NHL'S LOOK FOR 1982-83

The National Hockey League embarks upon its 66th regular season with two changes in terms of Conference and Divisional alignment and an unbalanced schedule that will focus attention upon some of the greatest rivalries in sport.

CLARENCE CAMPBELL CONFERENCE

SMYTHE DIVISION

Calgary Flames
Edmonton Oilers
Los Angeles Kings
Vancouver Canucks
Winnipeg Jets

NORRIS DIVISION

Chicago Black Hawks
Detroit Red Wings
Minnesota North Stars
St. Louis Blues
Toronto Maple Leafs

PRINCE OF WALES CONFERENCE

PATRICK DIVISION

New Jersey Devils
New York Islanders
New York Rangers
Philadelphia Flyers
Pittsburgh Penguins
Washington Capitals

ADAMS DIVISION

Boston Bruins
Buffalo Sabres
Hartford Whalers
Montreal Canadiens
Quebec Nordiques

UNBALANCED SCHEDULE:

Each of the 21 teams will play an 80-game schedule with those teams in the Smythe, Patrick and Adams Divisions having eight games (four home, four away) against each of their Divisional opponents, plus three games against each of the remaining 16 teams in the League. In the case of the three games against the remaining clubs, teams will play two home, one away or vice-versa, alternating the extra home game each year.

The six clubs in the Patrick Division — New Jersey, New York Islanders, New York Rangers, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington — will play each other seven times with three games against each of the remaining 15 teams. The home ice differential will be alternated each season.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS FORMAT:

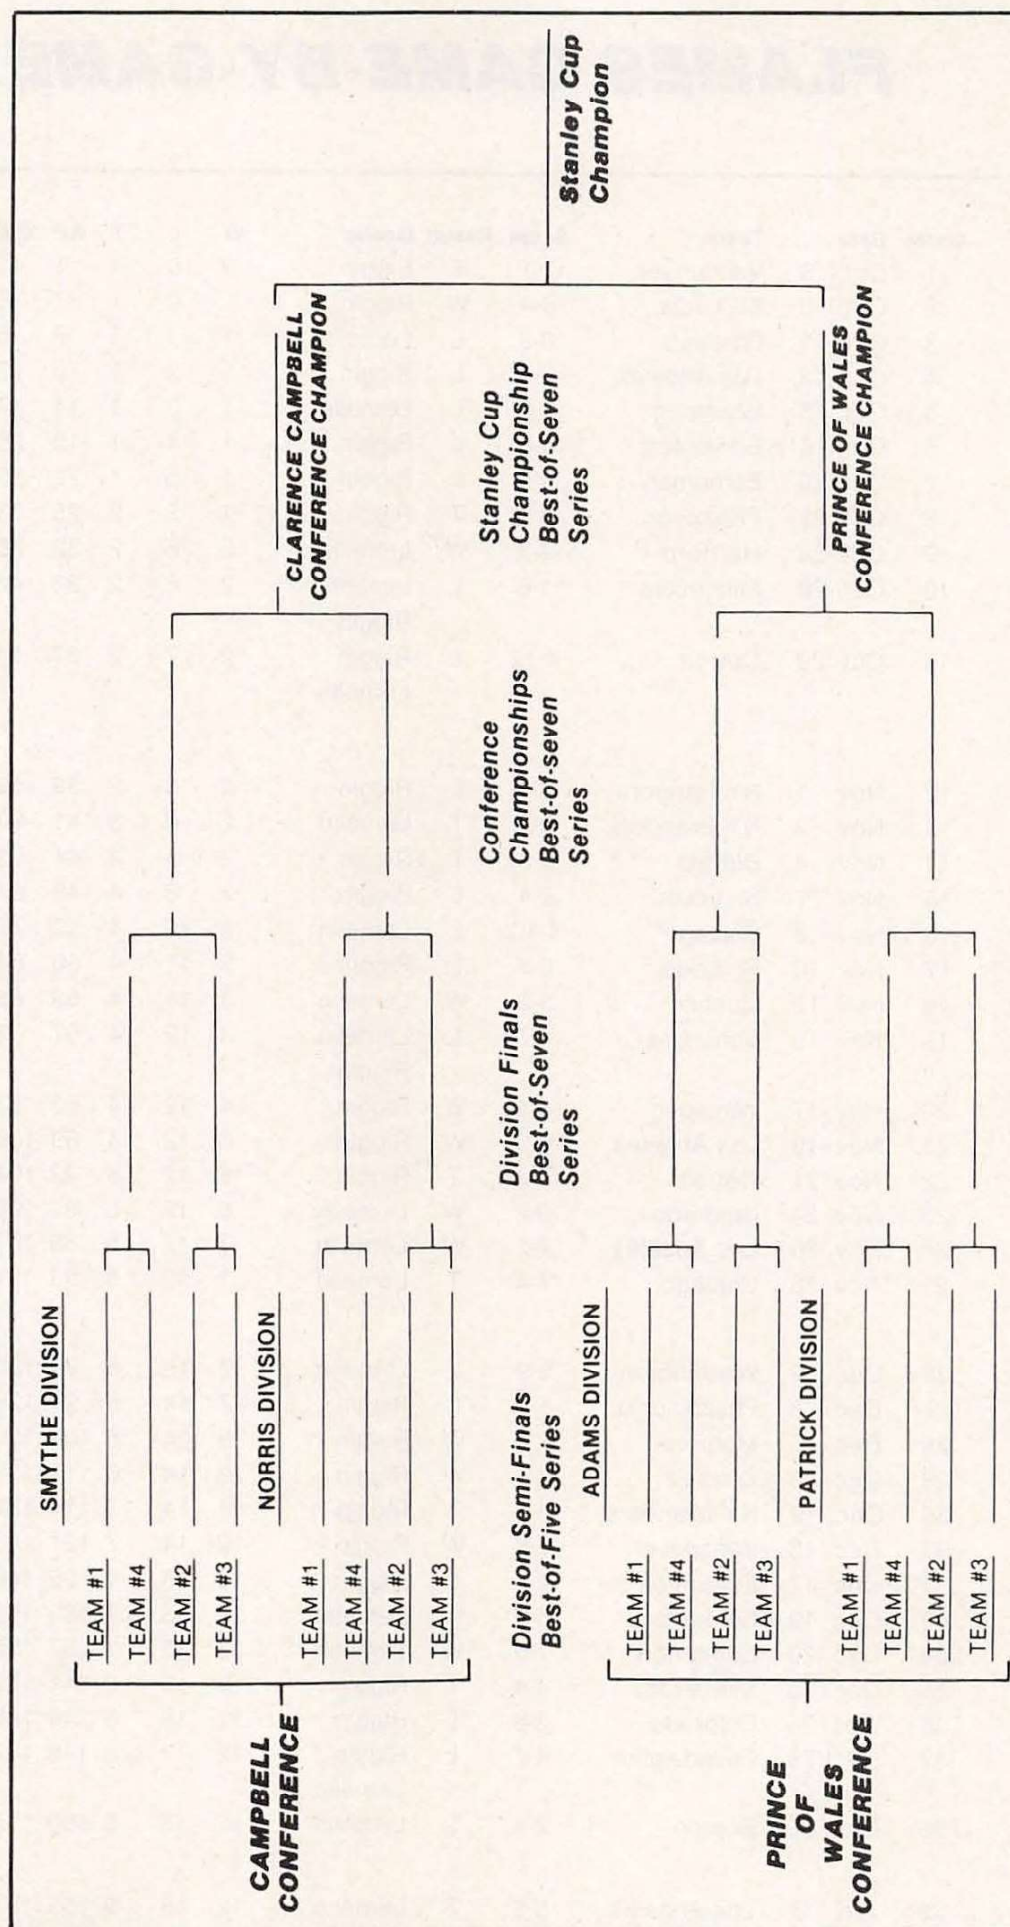

At the conclusion of the regular schedule, the top four finishers in each of the Divisions will qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

The preliminary round features divisional playoffs that will have the first place club oppose the fourth place team and second versus third in a best-of-five series. The winners of each series will advance to a best-of-seven Divisional Final series, with the team with the highest standing during the regular season receiving home-ice advantage.

The four divisional winners will meet in a best-of-seven Conference Championship. It will be the Smythe Division versus the Norris Division for the Campbell Conference championship, while the Patrick Division will oppose the Adams Division winner for the Prince of Wales Conference title. The Conference champions will meet in a best-of-seven final series for the Stanley Cup.

Home ice advantage for the semi-final and final rounds will be alternated each season according to Division and Conference. For this season (1982-83), the Adams and Smythe Division winners will gain home-ice advantage in the Conference championships, while the champion of the Campbell Conference will hold home-ice advantage in the Stanley Cup Final.

The Molson Cup three stars evolved from one of NHL hockey's oldest traditions ... the selection at game's end of the three players judged most valuable. The Molson Cup was born to add substance to the star selections, to reward consistently high levels of performance and to recognize major contributions to the team's success over an entire season.

This is the third season The Molson Cup will be awarded to the Calgary Flames' player who achieves the greatest number of points from these three star selections. Players from the Flames will be awarded five points every time they are chosen as a star by a media selection panel of a regular season game. The contest is divided into five segments: October and November/December/January/February/ March and April. Cash awards will be presented following each segment of the contest. The first and second place finishers in these segments will receive $1,000.00 and $500.00 respectively.

The overall winner will be awarded the prestigious Molson Cup along with a check for $1,000.00. The overall runner-up will receive $500.00. For all five segments, as well as the final standing, any ties for first or second place will be decided by choosing the player with the greatest number of first star selections.

Kent Nilsson, with 95 points, was the first Calgary Flames' player to win the prestigious Molson Cup. Rejean Lemelin finished second with 65 points. Last season, 1981-82, Pat Riggin was the winner. He received 55 points. Jim Peplinski was second with 50 points.
